I Write My Own Story

- I make me, me when I choose. . . .
- . . . to do the things I do.
- . . . to buy the things I buy.

I Write My Own Story

- . . . to look the way I do.
- “I am the captain of my fate and the master of my soul.”

The story of Jesus

- The story you became a part of at your baptism.
- The story you are embracing today.

The story of Jesus

- The story you will continually discover for the rest of forever.

Some Definite Service

God has created me to do Him some definite service. He has committed some work to me which He has not committed to another. I have my mission. I may never know it in this life, but I shall be told it in the next.

Some Definite Service

I am a link in a chain, a bond of connection between persons. He has not created me for naught. I shall do good; I shall do His work. I shall be an angel of peace, a preacher of truth in my own place, while not intending it if I do but keep His commandments.

Some Definite Service

Therefore, I will trust Him, whatever I am, I can never be thrown away. If I am in sickness, my sickness may serve Him, in perplexity, my perplexity may serve Him. If I am in sorrow, my sorrow may serve Him.

Some Definite Service

He does nothing in vain. He knows what He is about. He may take away my friends. He may throw me among strangers. He may make me feel desolate, make my spirits sink, hide my future from me. Still, He knows what He is about.
