

Only Fools
and Corpses

It's Patrick, he took out life insurance!

The Farmer

- What shall I do?
- I will pull down!
- I will store up!
- The I-dolator

The Teacher

- When you're growing your wealth, it causes you anxiety!
- When you're ready to enjoy it, you die!

The Teacher

- When you're dead, someone else profits from it!
- Then they die, too.
- It's all meaningless.

Jesus

- You fool!
- He is attached to the material.
- He is detached from God.

Jesus

- He is anxious about many things.
- He has neglected the one thing necessary.
- He is a fool. And he is me.

Paul

- You have died.
- You are dead to the things of the world. So kill them!

Paul

- You have been raised.
- You are alive in Christ. So live in that new reality!

Only Fools and Corpses

- From “dead in sin” to “dead to sin”
- Daily appropriation of our baptisms
- Daily conversion

Only Fools and Corpses

- Daily dependence on grace
- Daily embrace of “the one thing necessary”
